POLICE DEPARTMENT.

NOTICES.

The 27th May 1892.

A reward of Rs. 15 is offered by Government to any person giving information leading to the discovery of one Malla, who has absconded after murdering Shama Rao, Patel of Kasapura village in the Koratagere Sub-Taluk, Tumkur District.

The 7th June 1892.

The body of a male in an advanced state of decomposition was found floating in the Hemavati, about a mile up the river from the town of Saklespur, by the Police on the 23rd May 1892. As no clue has been obtained to identify the body and there appears to be no person missing from the surrounding villages, notice is hereby given that, should any male member be missing either in the Saklespur or neighbouring Taluks, the relatives or other persons concerned will communicate to the Superintendent of Police, Hassan District.

The body when found had both its legs crossed and tied just above the ankles with a white cotton kammarband and knotted in front, over this the right hand was placed and the kammarband was rolled round the legs and the hand at the wrist, and the loose end fastened by being passed through the folds of the kammarband with a knot. The left hand was free.

The corpse when found had 2 gold murus in each ear with a good pearl of the size of a grain of green gram "Hésarukalu" and a shirt with brown stripes (flannelet) over the body. No other clothing. The kammarband is 6 inches wide, 4½ yards long and has on one end 1 red and 2 narrow blue stripes and the other 2 red and 2 blue, and fringe not twisted or knotted.

The corpse answered to the following description :—

Age.—About 25 years.	Sect.—Not known.	Features.—Indiscernible being in an advanced stage of decomposition.
Sex.—Male.	Name.—Not known.
Caste.—Hindu.	Residence.—Not known.

Cause of death is said in post mortem report to be drowning and may probably be homicidal.

The 8th June 1892.

A reward of Rs. 10 is offered by Mr. Morley, Hospital Assistant, Saklespur, to any person or persons who may give information as may lead to the discovery of the following articles, stolen from his residence on or about the 15th February last.—

Description.

Gun—Double barrel, central fire, choke bore, No. 14.

Maker—W. Richards.

Identifying Marks.—Locks, rebounding action. The head of a samber was engraved on the iron heel plate. There were a few scratches on the outside about the centre of the right barrel.

Cane.—Subramanya rattan, about an inch in diameter, color red, with black marks at the knots. Had a silver head. The silver was worth about Rs. 2.

The 14th June 1892.
